

I am an concerned that additional electromagnetic radiation from our powerlines will have unintended long term consequences. I am also an avid listener of radio--both local am/fm and international shortwave. More pollution of the spectrum is undesirable and unnecessary. This looks like another scheme to make big business bigger.